FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1900.

NO. 7.

HON. JOHN W. YERKES.
Republican Candidate for Governor.

IMPORTANT CIRCULAR OF INSTRUCTIONS TO U. S. COMMISSIONERS.

To United States Commissioners,
District of Kentucky:

Sirs—Recently so many inquiries have reached me from United States Commissioners as to the laws of the United States that apply to elections when no Congressman is elected, and to elections when a Congressman is elected, that I have thought it best to respond to all such inquiries by means of this circular letter.

First—Under section 5507, Revised Statutes of the United States, it is made unlawful for any person to prevent, hinder or control a negro from exercising the right of suffrage, by means of bribery or intimidation. This section applies to all elections, State or Congressional.

Second—Under section 5440 it is made unlawful for two or more persons to conspire to commit an offense against the laws of the United States; therefore, if two or more persons conspire to prevent, hinder or control negroes from exercising the right of suffrage by means of bribery or intimidation, and one or more of such persons do any act to effect the object of the conspiracy, all the parties to the conspiracy become liable to the penalties denounced by that section.

Third—Under section 5508 of said statutes, if two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten or intimidate any citizen, white or black, in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to them by the Constitution or laws of the United States, they become liable to the very heavy penalties denounced by that section. Section 2004 of said statutes was enacted to enforce the fifteenth amendment to the Constitution, and grants to all citizens (white or black) the right not to be discriminated against on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude—in all elections, State and National—which right was also granted, as held by the Supreme Court in a number of cases, by said amendment, of its own force.

Therefore, a conspiracy to discriminate against a voter on account of his color, in any election, is a conspiracy to prevent him from the exercise and enjoyment of a right existing under the constitution and laws of the United States.

Fourth—Another Constitutional right that is granted to every citizen, white or black, is the right to vote in elections for Congressmen,

When a Congressman is elected the constitutional right of the voter differs materially from his constitutional right when no Congressman is elected. In the latter case, as above shown—in State elections only—his right is that he shall not be discriminated against on account of color; while in the former case his right is to vote, free from intimidation or hindrance, without regard to color, and if two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten or intimidate him in the free exercise and enjoyment of that right, they subject themselves to said heavy penalties—Ex parte Yarbrough, 110, U.S., 651.

The foregoing is my opinion on the law touching the questions stated, and while all officers entrusted with the execution of the laws should see that they are faithfully executed on all violators, without regard to their political affiliations, they should also be exceedingly careful not to lend any official aid or sanction to anything intended or likely to be effective for political purposes only.

Respectfully,

B. D. HILL,
United States Attorney.

THE BANNER PILE CURE

Is Banner Salve. It gives immediate relief and will soon effect a cure. 25c.

THE TRUTH.

Some of the daily papers made the statement that when Mr. H. E. Yontsey was brought to this city he arose and walked to the third story of the jail (where his room is situated) without assistance.

We thought the statement rather fishy at the time, and accordingly made an investigation and herewith publish the following card from Dr. C. K. Wallace, the physician who is attending upon him:

Frankfort, Ky., Oct., 25, 1900.
Editor Roundabout:

In answer to your inquiry I will state that when Mr. H. E. Yontsey was brought here I had him carried to his room in the jail on a mattress. He was utterly unable to walk.

I have not allowed him to sit up at all. When he raises up he has attacks of dizziness and is liable to fall over. His physical condition is very far from good. His temperature is sub-normal; pulse rapid. It will require careful nursing to restore him to health.

Respectfully,

C. K. WALLACE, M. D.
We trust those parties who made the false statement will be just enough to publish the above card from Dr. Wallace.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Our whole community was shocked, on Tuesday morning, when the announcement was made that Mrs. Annie Milan Keenon, wife of Mr. Umberto Keenon, was dead.

She had been suffering with a carbuncle for some time, but was thought to be on the mend only a short time before the end.

Mrs. Keenon was a universal favorite with all who knew her. She was the only daughter of Capt. B. C. Milan and was born and raised in this city. She was just past fifty years of age, and was a very hale and hearty woman.

When quite a girl she was married to Mr. Keenon and their union, which had been a very happy one, was blessed with a fine family of children—one son (Ben) and four daughters (Mrs. Thos. M. Stagg, Mrs. Frank G. Stagg, Miss Pattie and Miss Agnes) survive her, while they have lost several children.

She was one of the cheeriest and brightest women we ever knew—full of fun and life—ever ready for a joke—and yet tender-hearted and true.

She was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

The funeral ceremonies will take place from the family residence this morning at ten o'clock, services conducted by Rev. George Darsie, after which the remains will be placed in our cemetery.

A SHORT SAD STORY.

A cold.
Neglect.
Pneumonia.

Had Foley's Honey and Tar been used this story would have had a happier ending. 25c and 50c.

EXAMINING TRIAL.

The young man who killed his brother on Monday afternoon had his examining trial on Wednesday afternoon before Judge Moore. He was held in $500 bail to the circuit court in January, which he gave and was released.

GOOD NEWS.

By the card of our friend, Mr. W. H. Hawkins, in another place, it will be seen that he is recovering from his serious attack of fever, and hopes soon to take up his duties as Assessor again.

We but voice the sentiment of everyone when we say that we are rejoiced to know of his recovery.

A LIMA MAN'S TESTIMONY.

I have obtained excellent results from the use of FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. It relieved my backache and severe pain over the hips. It toned up my system and gave me new vim and energy. I regard it as an honest and reliable remedy for all kidney diseases. It makes no false claims but does what it says when given a fair trial. I certainly recommend it.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Aldridge will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage on next Wednesday, October 31st, at their home, corner of Washington and Broadway. All their friends are invited to call on them between the hours of 7 and 10 p. m.

WANTS TO RECRUIT FOR MARINE SERVICE.

Lieut. O. H. Rath, of the U. S. marine corps, has opened a recruiting station at 216 West Fourth street, Cincinnati, Ohio. Under the Navy Personnel bill of 1899 the marine branch of service was increased from 1,800 to 6,000 enlisted men. Of this increase 450 are yet to be recruited. The application for service must be between 20 and 35 years of age and average between 5 feet 4 inches and 6 feet 1 inch in height. The term of enlistment is five years, the pay being $13 per month for the first two years, $14 for the third, $15 for the fourth and $16 for the fifth, and 20 per cent increase when stationed in foreign possessions.

The recruit, on acceptance into service, is sent to the barracks at Washington, D. C., from where, after six months of instruction, he is placed on one of the battleships or cruisers, where he has an opportunity to see the world at the government's expense. Unlike any other branch of the navy, an enlisted man has ample opportunity to become a commissioned officer, besides having all the benefits of the pension and retirement laws.

CIVILITY IS GOOD CAPITAL.

Look at the army of salesmen and saleswomen in our stores. There is not, I believe, as capable or honest a corps in the world. Yet a French or English shopgirl will sell twice as many goods in the same time, and the customer will come again to be served by the same woman. Why? Because she is civil and courteous.

There is something pitiful as well as ridiculous in the indifference, the hauteur, the actual rudeness of many of the intelligent young men and women behind our counters. Yet, civility is their capital. By selling gloves or tinware they earn their living, and the more civil they are the more they sell.

Most of my readers know a few saleswomen who have remained in some of the old business houses until honored old age, and, by their ability and courtesy, have made for themselves hosts of friends. It is a pity that these foolish young people could not learn their business from them.—"An American Mother" in the November Ladies Home Journal.

TRUE AS GOSPEL.

Of all the love affairs in the world none can surpass the true love of a big boy for his mother. It is pure and noble, honorable to the highest degree in both. I do not mean only a dutiful affection; I mean a love that makes a boy gallant and courteous to his mother, showing to everybody that he is fairly in love with her. Next to the love of a husband nothing so crowns a woman's life with honor as this second love—this devotion of a son to her. I never yet knew a boy to turn bad who began falling in love with his mother. Any man may fall in love with a fresh-faced girl, but the boy who is a lover of his mother in his middle age is a true knight.

My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected soon to die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now I am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." A Perfect Balance

Of mind and body was the Roman idea of perfect health. They defined this balance as "a sound mind in a sound body." A weak or sickly body tends to drag down the mind to its own level. Keep the body in health and the mind will take care of itself. The health of the body depends mainly on two things: A sound stomach and pure blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery preserves the balance of health, because it makes the stomach strong and the blood pure. People who had not had a well day in years, nervous of body, depressed of mind, have been perfectly cured by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

"During the summer and fall of 1896 I became all run down," writes Charles H. Sergeant, Esq., of Plain City, Madison Co., Ohio, "nerves were out of order and stomach was out of order. I wrote to Doctor Pierce for advice. He said I had general debility, and advised Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I used six bottles, and since I stopped taking it, about one year ago, I have not taken any medicine of any kind, and have been able to work every day. My appetite is good, and I do not feel that burning in the stomach, and my blood and nerves are in good shape."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 cent postage stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

CINCINNATI.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and your grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and had with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by S. B. Holmes.

THE NEW ELECTION LAW.

House Bill No. 19, embracing some good amendments to the present election law, became a law Friday afternoon, and as it contains an emergency clause, it becomes effective at once. The most important amendments are:

The furnishing of paper of 80 pounds weight by the Secretary of State to the county clerks of the State, which the clerks are to use in the ballots furnished by them to the precinct election officers, and providing a penalty of $500 fine and six months imprisonment in the county jail for failure of the clerk to use the paper furnished him.

The preservation of both voted and spoiled and questioned ballots by the county clerks for a period of six months after the election, or in case of a contest until the same is settled.

The placing of a circle under the devices on the ballot instead of the square heretofore used.

Making it a felony for a county clerk to fail to place the name of the regular nominee of a party under the device of that party on the ballot, and fixing his punishment at confinement at three years in the penitentiary.

Requiring a person whose right to vote has been challenged to make an affidavit that he is entitled to vote. If a resident of the precinct makes a counter affidavit the person shall not be allowed to vote, and in either case the affidavit shall be laid before the grand jury of the county at the first term of the court following the election.

Making it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than $5 for any election officer refusing to allow any challenger bearing the credentials of his party, from discharging his duties as such challenger.

Makes any officer giving out an improper certificate of the result of the election guilty of felony, punishable by confinement in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than three years.

Makes any county clerk who tampers with ballot-box or destroys same guilty of felony, forfeits office and confines him in penitentiary not less than one nor more than three years.

Makes it a felony for tampering with ballots or adding ballots to those counted, and punishes by confinement in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than three years.

Makes it a felony for any person to attempt to or prevent any voter from casting his ballot or interfering with election officers in discharge of his duties, punishable by confinement in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years.

If this law is observed there will be less cause for complaining of election thieves.

Don't Get Thin

Get fat; get nice and plump; there is safety in plumpness.

Summer has tried your food-works; winter is coming to try your breath-mill. Fall is the time to brace yourself.

But weather is tricky; look out! Look out for colds especially.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the subtlest of helps. It is food, the easiest food in the world; it is more than food, it helps you digest your food, and get more nutriment from it.

Don't get thin, there is safety in plumpness. Man woman and child.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample. Its agreeable taste will surprise you.

DESERVED ENDORSEMENT.

On Friday last Mr. Clarence E. Woods, of Richmond, was re-elected Grand Recorder of the Grand Council of Sigma Nu.

This is a deserved endorsement of an efficient and able officer, who is devoted to the interests of the society.

We tender our sincere congratulations to our friend upon his good fortune.

When you can not sleep for coughing it is hardly necessary that anyone should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For Sale by J. W. Gayle, Druggist.

FINE FARM SOLD.

Mr. Oscar Farmer, as administrator of his father, Mr. Thos. Farmer, sold the homestead, containing some 400 acres of fine land, to Mr. John Hostetter, of Fayette county, for $13,900, equal to cash.

This is one of the best improved farms in that end of the county. The sale was made on Friday last.

This is the season when mothers are alarmed on account of croup. It is quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure, which children like to take. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

CONVICTED.

As everybody knew beforehand, the jury in the Yontsey case, at Georgetown, returned a verdict, on Saturday morning, sentencing him to prison for life.

Another victory for the $100,000 reward fund and to place the money in the pockets of Golden, Culton, Nonks, Campbell, et id omne genus. Next.

Dr. W. H. Lewis, Lawrenceville, Va., writes: "I am using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in my practice, among severe cases of indigestion, and find it an admirable remedy. Many hundreds of physicians depend upon the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in stomach troubles. It digests what you eat, and allows you to eat all the good food you need, providing you do not over-load your stomach. Gives instant relief and a permanent cure. South Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

WON PREMIUM.

Mr. Geo. L. Payne won one of the handsome premiums at the Louisville Horse Show on his splendid young buggy mare. He is justly proud of his victory.

NEW PAPER.

We are in receipt of a copy of a new paper published at Augusta, Bracken county. It is an eight page, six column weekly paper, and, judging from its advertisements and general make-up promises to be a lively member of the "press gang."

It is edited by Messrs. A. F. Curran and W. T. Abbott.

We wish the new concern all sorts of prosperity.

The best method of cleansing the liver is the use of the famous little pills known as Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers. Easy to take. Never gripe. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

ANOTHER KILLING.

On Monday afternoon two lads by the name of Thos. and Leonard Bromley were scuffling over a deck of cards, at one of the resorts in the lower part of the town, when Thomas Bromley was shot by his brother, in the top of the head, and instantly killed him. The shooting had such a bad look about it (though claimed to be accidental) that Leonard was arrested and lodged in jail.

BROUGHT HERE.

On Tuesday morning Mr. Henry Yontsey, who was convicted at Georgetown last Saturday of the murder of Goebel and sentenced to life imprisonment, was brought to this city on the Frankfort & Cincinnati Railway and placed in the room formerly occupied by Col. D. G. Colson in our jail.

Yontsey regained consciousness on Monday and was placed on a cot and taken on board the cars Tuesday morning. When the sheriff and his prisoner reached this city the cot was placed in a spring wagon and taken to the jail, followed by the guards.

Yontsey was exceedingly weak, and was covered up very closely in the bed.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap.
A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles. "Bosche's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by S. B. Holmes. 4-1y

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The Capital Theatre will be dark until after the election as the lessees wisely concluded not to book anything for that exciting time.

The Frankfort public are showing their appreciation in a substantial manner of the efforts of the Blanton Bros. to provide them with first class shows. The attendance has steadily increased since the theatre opened, and Superba played to capacity.

The Keystone Dramatic Company, which comes for the week of Nov. 12th, is one of the very strongest companies on the road that plays at popular prices.

Do not get scared if your heart troubles you. Most likely you suffer from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and gives the worn-out stomach perfect rest. It is the only preparation known that completely digests all classes of foods; that is why it cures the worst cases of indigestion and stomach trouble after everything else has failed. It may be taken in all conditions and can not help but do you good. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

ADJOURNED.

That great and only aggregation of freaks, known as the Legislature of Kentucky, adjourned sine die on Monday last, at 3:30 o'clock.

On Saturday a resolution was unanimously adopted to allow the Republicans to name the man to fill the vacancy in the State Election Board (occasioned by the resignation of Mr. M. K. Yontz).

On Monday the Republicans named Hon. A. M. J. Cochran, of Maysville, for the place. As soon as the Democrats found that Mr. Cochran was to be elected they refused to answer to their names, broke the quorum and forced an adjournment sine die without an election.

ARRESTED—JAILED.

A colored man by the name of J. W. Jones was arrested and lodged in jail on Monday afternoon, charged with insulting a white woman.

COW KILLED BY STREET CAR.

A cow belonging to Mr. Tom Ballew was straying on the track of the street cars on Holmes street, on Monday afternoon, when one of the cars ran over and killed her.

TIME IS LIFE

The father? Gone for the doctor. The mother? Alone with her suffering child. Will the doctor never come? When there is croup in the house you can't get the doctor quick enough. It's too dangerous to wait. Don't make such a mistake again; it may cost a life. Always keep on hand a dollar bottle of

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup

It cures the croup at once. Then when any one in the family comes down with a hard cold or cough a few doses of the Pectoral will cut short the attack at once. A 25 cent bottle will cure a miserable cold; the 50c size is better for a cold that has been hanging on.

Keep the dollar size on hand. "About 25 years ago I came near dying with croup, but was cured with Ayer's Cherry Food, since which time I have kept Ayer's medicine in the house and recommend them to all my friends."

J. D. MARYWELL, Bristol, Va. Jan. 16, 1899.

Write the Doctor, if you have any complaints whatever and desire the best medical advice, write the doctor freely. Address Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

EX-SENATOR SHERMAN DAD.

Hon. John Sherman, ex-Senator from Ohio, died in Washington City, on Monday morning at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Sherman was an able and upright man, and had rendered great service to the country in his long life of prominence and activity in public life.

He had been a member of Congress, Senator, Secretary of the Treasury, and Secretary of State. He had a great desire to become President, and because of his failure to obtain the nomination for that office, he became somewhat soured in his later years.

His record as a public servant was one that any man might be proud of.

CAME NEAR DYING.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines, but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and three doses relieved me entirely. I went to sleep and did not awake for eight hours. On awakening a few hours ago I felt so gratified that the first work I did on going to the office is to write to the manufacturers of this remedy and offer them my grateful thanks, and say 'God bless you and the splendid medicine you make.' This remedy is for sale by J. W. Gayle, Druggist."

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

We regret to learn that Mr. John Cannon, son of Esq. W. L. Cannon, of Woodford county, near Midway, was badly hurt by a runaway horse on Monday.

It appears that young Cannon was attempting to hitch the bride on his horse which was hitched to his buggy, when the animal began to rear and caught Cannon's arm between the shaft and his side. It then dashed off, running through a closed gate, smashing the buggy and releasing young Cannon from his dangerous position, but seriously hurting his arm, side and leg.

He is doing nicely now, however, and expects soon to be out again.

CIVIL LIBERTY.

(By Col. W. H. Murray.)

Editor Roundabout:

I again enclose you an extract from history concerning Mr. Jefferson, and his letter to the King, in 1773, "the art of government consists of being honest."

Mr. Jefferson explained to the King, and his ministry, through the Continental Congress, by the Declaration of Independence, what he meant by being honest. The ultimatum was issued the 4th of July, 1775, and has never been repealed, annulled or set aside, and is as much in force in Kentucky as it was the day it was proclaimed in Liberty Hall, in Philadelphia. "Now the things which I write you, behold before God, I lie not. Men will fight and die for liberty," and then put men in office who will rob them of it. Behold Kentucky to-day!

"The principle contended for by the parliament was the absolute power and right of Great Britain to bind the colonies in all cases what ever."

What are the principles of the seditious citizens in Kentucky to-day under the cloak of the Goebel Democracy? One and the same,—Great Britain with the colonies.

"Popular commotions prevented the landing of the stamp act papers, which had been sent from England to be used in all processes before the judicial courts."

Where were the courts that they did not issue injunction process against the popular commotions of that day? We fail to read of a single judge moving in the matter. Why were they silent? To-day popular commotions against injustice and oppression are criminal offenses, when theft of offices are to be committed against the voice of the people expressed at the polls. How the mighty have fallen.

From National Portrait Gallery, vol. 11, Philadelphia, D. Rice and A. N. Hart, 1859. "Thomas Jefferson," page 4: "In the early part of 1773 the first organized system of colonial resistance was established by the formation of committees of correspondence in the different provinces. This plan was devised and arranged by Mr. Jefferson, who privately assembled some of the bolder spirits of the State (wonder if they were mountaineers) at a public house called the Raleigh tavern, in Richmond, and suggested it to them (that is for the resistance). It was eagerly adopted, and its benefits became strikingly apparent, when in the following year the measures of the British government showed the increased necessity of united and resolute resistance."

The passage of the Boston port-test, the bills which immediately followed it had filled up the measure of insult and oppression. (How about the Goebel Bill?)

"At this crisis, not content with his labors, which were constant as a member of the Legislature, he wrote and published 'A Summary View of the Rights of British America.' This he designed as an exposition, to be laid before the British sovereign, of the wrongs inflicted on America, and the sort of redress she would demand."

"Open your breast, sir," he says, addressing the King, "to liberal and expanded thought. It behooves you to think and act for your people. The great principles of right and wrong are legible to every reader; to pursue them requires not the aid of many counsellors." (What of the wrong in Kentucky to-day?)

"The whole art of government consists in the art of being honest. Is this the Jefferson, the Democracy of Kentucky to-day get their Democracy from? If so, they would do well to follow what he writes to the King in 1773, as above quoted, about being honest. They are the reverse of Jefferson, and his art of government, for they are wholly dishonest, and have been so for years, until a revolution is waiting at Kentucky's door, to come in on the least provocation, and it will come in too.)

For this publication Lord Dunmore, the royal governor, threatened to prosecute him on a charge of treason, and dissolved the Legislature, who had by their resolutions, sustained the same doctrines. When the conciliatory propositions of the British ministry were sent out in the following year the Legislature was again assembled and they were referred to a committee, who immediately presented a reply from the pen of Mr. Jefferson. This document, which is to be found in the histories of that period, has ever been considered as a state paper of the highest order and it announced, in a great degree, the same sentiments as those which its author afterwards promulgated in the Declaration of Independence. It was hardly drawn up when he was called to a wider scene. The colonies had determined to unite together, and send delegates to a general Congress. In this body, then in session at Philadelphia, Mr. Jefferson took his seat on the 21st of June, 1775, and became immediately what he always continued to be, one of its most distinguished members.

In the following summer the debates of Congress and the various expressions of public sentiment showed that the time had arrived for a final and entire separation from Great Britain; and a committee was appointed to draft a resolution to that effect. Of this Mr. Jefferson was chairman, and prepared, in conformity to the instructions of Congress, the Declaration of Independence, which, after a few alterations, was adopted on the 4th of July, 1776.

(But Mr. Jefferson, writing to the King, in 1778, says: "The whole art of government consists in the art of being honest.")

(Tell it in Gath, and Askelon, Dan and B'erebe, and all the near as well as the far off provinces (counties) that they may know what Mr. Jefferson said about being honest.)

Jefferson to Mr. Randolph—"Believe me, dear sir, there is not in the whole British empire a man who cherishes more cordially than I do the union with Great Britain, but by the God who made me, I would cease to live rather than accept that union on the terms proposed by Parliament. We lack neither motives nor power to declare and maintain our separation. It is the will that we lack, and that is growing little by little under the hand of our King."

(It grew until it culminated in the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776. In that instrument Mr. Jefferson informed the King what he meant when he wrote him in 1773, when he said, "the whole art of government consists in the art of being honest." It was in plain terms, which the King could not misunderstand.)

"North American Independence was achieved by a new phenomenon in the history of mankind, by a self-formed, self-constituted, and a self-governed Democracy." (It differs, very much indeed, from the Democracy of Kentucky to-day. The people governed themselves. Now they are governed by the election commissioners, the Legislature, the bosses and the one man rule.)

"There were leaders of the people in the several colonies, and afterwards of the States in the Continental Congress. There was a Continental army, a Continental navy and a Continental currency, agents, factors and soldiers, but the living soul, the vivifying spirit of the whole was a steady, firm resolute, inflexible will of the people. (Not the boss and the convention man.)

Marching through fire and sword, pestilence and famine, and bent to march, were it through the wreck of matter and the crush of worlds to Independence."

Washington to Capt. McKenzie—"I can testify, as a fact, that independence is neither the wish nor the interest of this colony (Massachusetts) or of any other of the colonies, separately or collectively. But, at the same time, you may rely upon it that none of them will ever submit to the loss of those privileges, of those precious rights which are essential to the happiness of every free State."

On the 18th of April, 1775, at night, "When the King's troops, on approaching Lexington, expected to lay hands upon two of the principal movers, Samuel Adams and John Hancock, they came into collision in the night, with a corps of militia blocking the way. The Americans, taking no notice of the order given them to retire, the English troops, at the instigation of their officers; a few men fell. War was begun between England and America."

"Some few days later the town (Boston) was besieged by an American army, and the Congress, meeting at Philadelphia, appointed Washington to be General-in-Chief of all the forces of the United Colonies of all that had been or should be levied, and of all others that should voluntarily offer their services or join the said army to defend American liberty and to repulse every attack directed against it."

"If everybody were of my opinion," wrote Washington, in the month of February, 1775, "the English minister would learn, in few words, what we want to arrive at."

These distinguished gentlemen in Kentucky, who, at this hour, are endeavoring to deprive Kentuckians of all interests, most dear—self government by the people. I should set forth simple, and without periphrases, our grievances, and our resolution to have justice. I should tell them that we have long and ardently desired an honorable reconciliation, and that it has been refused. I should add that we have conducted ourselves as faithful subjects, that the feeling of liberty is too strong in our hearts to let us ever submit to slavery (will Kentucky submit to slavery?), and that we are quite determined to burst every bond with an unjust and unnatural government. If our enslavement alone will satisfy a tyrant and his diabolical ministry. (These are the evils existing in Kentucky this day.) "And I should tell them all this, not in covert terms, but in language as plain as the light of the sun at full noon."

(On the following July 4th the King was told in plain terms by the Declaration of American Independence. All had been borne, that could be borne, all had been endured that could be endured, all had been suffered that could be suffered, the British yoke had been forever thrown off.)

In the language of Benjamin Franklin, "Prudence, patience, discretion. When the catastrophe arrives it must be clear to all mankind that the fault is not on our side."

(Liberty, independence and immortal freedom had been forced upon them at the point of the bayonet by the British.)

See what one Kentuckian has to say about the Declaration of Independence (Mr. Lincoln):

"Now, my countrymen, if you have been taught doctrines conflicting with the great landmarks of the Declaration of Independence; if you have listened to suggestions which would take away from the grandeur and mutilate the fair symmetry of its proportions; if you have been inclined to believe that all men are not created equal, let me entreat you to come back, return to the fountain whose waters spring close by the blood of the revolution. Think nothing of revolution. Think nothing of me. Make no thought for the political fate of any man whomsoever, but come back to the truths that are in the Declaration of Independence. You may do anything with me you choose, if you will but heed these sacred principles. You may not only defeat me for the Senate but you may take me

"I prefer the glory that will last forever, to that of a day." No country ever had a truer son, no cause a nobler champion, no people a braver defender, no principle a purer victim, than Mr. Lincoln was. He traveled in the road blazed out by the immortal and illustrious Washington and his co-workers on the Temple of Liberty. But there comes a voice to cheer those weary of strife, but hopeful for the future, chanting the welcome message of "all will soon be well."

and warm water. Use a scrubbing brush; when water becomes the least soiled, get fresh; follow with a soft, dry chamois cloth, and wipe dry. White iron beds can also be washed by this method, but must be wiped dry quickly.

The name is blown from our free booklet "GOLDEN RULES FOR HOUSEWORK."

Send for it to THE E. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Chicago, St. Louis, New York, Boston.

OSTEOPATHS WIN AGAIN.

Last term of the Court of Appeals there was an opinion rendered by that body deciding that the osteopathic doctors could not be punished for practicing their profession without license from the State Board of Health as practitioners of medicine.

A motion was made, at the first of the present term of that court for a rehearing. On Tuesday last Chief Justice Hazelrigg handed down a decision overruling the motion, and again affirming the right of the osteopaths to practice their healing art without using medicine.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at J. W. Gayle's Drug Store.

IT HAPPENED IN A DRUG STORE.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine, and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale in a large measure to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use. It is for sale by J. W. Gayle, Druggist.

HON. W. H. COX.

The Legislature has adjourned and the legislators have gone home.

In glancing over the work and the personnel of that body it occurs to us that no member of the Legislature is more deserving of praise from his constituents and of the entire people than Hon. Wm. H. Cox, of Mason county. Unassuming, gentlemanly and quiet, he brings to bear an ability and a conscientiousness in the discharge of his duties that is refreshing in these legislative times. He is a safe party counselor, possesses untiring zeal and industry, and, as aforesaid, in this Legislature has served his people and the State admirably. The good people of his district may well be proud of their representative. No district in the State has a better representative.

(Communicated.) STOP AND THINK.

Shall we, the citizens of proud old Kentucky, be ruled and governed by fraud and infamy, or shall we be governed by right and justice. Shall civil liberty and equality be our watchword or fraud, under the cloak of law, urged on by infamy of the vilest character that the ingenuity of man, whose greed for office, has become so great as to cause them to forget and put aside the principles of truth and justice? Let the people of this Commonwealth review the general welfare and prosperity, both State and National, and then compare it with the past, and see which is the best, whether we shall take usurpation and disfranchisement or whether our ballots shall be counted as cast. Let every citizen rise, regardless of party affiliation and partisan principles, and demand that the majority rule and minority peacefully submit. Let each one repair to the polls on the 6th day of November, 1900, and cast their ballots for truth and justice and American freedom and equality of rights. Prejudice has taken reason from the minds of many, so much so that law has become only form, and verdicts rendered according to partisan principles. Let us redeem our proud old State from under the curse of that infamous and miserable law that has robbed us of our liberty and rights. Let us purge and cleanse the records of our statutes of such villainess, so that the rising generation, who come after us, will not point back with the finger of scorn at their pages and say we be unto you. Let us, when we enter the booth, and pick up the stencils, with uplifted hands, look heavenward and say "Father, guide us the right way." Let us place our stencil under the emblem of the log cabin, which resembles prosperity and plenty without and peace and comfort within. Then we can go to our homes and rest in peace. ONE THAT DEMANDS JUSTICE. A MONSTER DEVIL FISH.

Destroying its victim, is a type of Constipation. The power of this murderous malady is felt on organs and nerves and muscles and brain. There's no health till it's overcome. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a safe and certain cure. Best in the world for Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels. Only 25 cents at J. W. Gayle's Drug Store.

ZILPAH.

Mrs. Jane Moore is visiting her daughter Mrs. J. C. Deakins, near Shelbyville, this week.

Mr. Fahrman Poole and wife, of Hemp Ridge, are the guests of Mr. J. P. Bright and family this week.

Mr. J. B. Moore visited his best girl Saturday, near Peaks Mill. Shine your shoes and be ready, we know not the hour.

The fellow that looked so high at the street fair surely found his girl as he went away last week and has not returned yet.
